

Meet the Camp Discovery Administrative Team

	Director	Sam DeSantis works as a STEM teacher for Manchester Public Schools. She graduated from Uconn with a BS and Masters in Elementary Education. Sam is very experienced in camps, and attended Camp Playland of Redding as a kid and then worked there as a counselor for three summers. Her favorite camp activities include any field sports and singing camp songs. Sam will welcome any challengers to learn the Cup Song which she LOVES. Her favorite Disney character is Mulan who is strong and inspiring- just like Sam!
	Assistant Director	Delaney Kehoe is currently a student at UConn pursuing a degree in ecology and evolutionary biology. This is Delaney's 3rd summer at Camp Discovery. As a child she attended Music and Arts Camp in Glastonbury as well as many softball camps to practice that fast pitch! When she is not busy perfecting her skills as a camp administrator, Delaney can often be found singing along to her favorite song, "Budapest" By George Ezra. Delaney FAVORITE camp activity is the infamous Silent Ball. Her favorite character is the humorous Perry the Platypus.
	Assistant Director - Explorers	Julia Zagaja just graduated from Uconn with a bachelor's degree in Elementary Education. She will return to UConn, studying abroad in London during the fall system to complete her Master's degree. This is Julia second year at Camp Discovery, she attended various Girl Scouts and YMCA camps as a child. Her favorite camp activity would have to be song bingo and arts & crafts! She can often be found jamming to "Never Forget You" by Zara Larsson. Julia's favorite character is Arlo from the Good Dinosaur. Julia is so excited for Camp Discovery!
	Assistant Director - Trailblazers	Anthony Longo is returning for his third year as Assistant Director at Camp Discovery! He has a bachelor's in Physical Education from Eastern and as a PE teacher during the school year. He has plenty of experience as a counselor, but also as a camper! He enjoyed attending Awesome Adventures as a kid. Anthony is an absolute professional at his favorite camp game, Ships and Sailors! Anthony, a leader of many talents, enjoys "lip syncing" to "Let it Go" from Disney's Frozen. Anthony's favorite character is Pluto, Mickey's dog, and may even bring his stuffed animal to camp!
